

Honors and Awards Nominations Sought

South Texas Section Annual Awards

Deadline for nominations is March 15, 2012.

These Awards will be presented at the Honors & Awards Celebration is April 12th at the Forest Club.

Awards	Requirements
Meritorious Service Award	Exceptional service to the South Texas Section or its groups for several years in one event or several events of service.
Herbert Allen Award	Outstanding technical achievement by an engineer 35 years of age or younger at the time of the achievement .
J. George H. Thompson Award	Outstanding service to ASME at any level, by an engineer 35 years of age or younger at the time of service
Alan J. Chapman Award	For furthering the goals of ASME and engineering profession through sustained endeavor and diligent service to the South Texas Section, Division and Region over a period of many years in many capacities.
Claude L. Wilson Award	Lifetime achievements of an outstanding engineering educator.
W. R. Woolrich Engineer of the Year Award	To the outstanding engineer of any age in the Section. For outstanding technical achievement and service to the Society, to the Section, and / or to the Community, State or Nation over a period of years.

Nominations: must include for nominee – name, company, contact number, and a full description of nominee’s achievements / contributions that merit the award. Also include the name of the nominator and a contact number (for clarification if necessary).

For more information or for help in preparing nominations, contact Kathy Smith at southtexasseminars@comcast.net or call 713-523-4565 or fax 713-523-6767.