

James Hutton Awarded Fellow Status

An Award Long Overdue to a Gentleman of Great Accomplishments

Greg Berry presented Jim Hutton his Fellow Award.

Degrees/Education

BS Engineering, University of Texas/Austin 1947
BBA Bachelor of Business Administration, University of Texas/Austin 1948
U.S. Navy Engineering Midshipmen School, Columbia University 1943
Diesel Engineering Course at General Motors Technical Institute/Flint, MI 1944

Job History

Chief Engineer on Diesel Powered Ships U.S. 1019 & 1020 1944-1946
Mechanical Engineer, Texaco Refinery, Port Arthur 1947
Application Engineer Training, Dresser Clark 1948-1949
Application Engineer, Dresser Clark 1949-1953
Sales Engineer, Dresser Clark 1953-1960
District Sales Manager, Dresser Clark 1960-1963
Area Sales Manager, Dresser Clark 1963-1966
Assistant to President, Dresser Clark 1966-1967
Commercial Direction, Dresser Clark/London 1967-1969
European Middle East Sales Manager, Dresser Clark 1969-1970
Marketing Manager, Dresser Clark 1970-1972
Sales Manager S. America & S.E. Asia, Dresser Clark 1972-1979
President, Dresser Trading 1979-1981
President, Dresser Machinery International Division 1981-1986
Vice President, Compressor Engineering Corp. 1986-present

Engineering Accomplishments

For 5 years sized compressor cylinders, and plotted performance curves for 175-5500 brake horsepower reciprocating gas compressors
Sold first offshore gas turbine driven centrifugal compressors to United Gas 1973
Sold first Dresser Clark engineered package 2000 BHP Gas Turbine to Australia 1977
Sold first 7000 psig centrifugal gas compressor to Mobil Indonesia 1982

Registered Professional Engineer—Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico

Ethics Presentations to Pipeliners Club, ASME South Texas Section, ASME Plant Engineering & Maintenance Technical Chapter, Gas Machinery Conference.